Welcome to Leverage Academy!

Together with our legal practice, Leverage Solicitors, we provide excellence in looking after the needs of those working in real estate, as well as those taking their first steps in the real estate industry.

Our strength lies in our unique ability to be at the forefront of industry developments and practice. Participant Age

Leverage Academy regrets that it is unable to enrol participants who have not yet reached the age of 16.

All participants will be required to have a Unique Student Identifier (USI). Your USI provides access to a secure online account that contains all your training records and results that you have completed since the commencement of the USI on 1 January 2015, a Commonwealth government requirement.

All students must have and provide a USI before a Registered Training Organisation (RTO) such as Leverage Academy can issue a Statement of Attainment (SoA) or Qualification Certificate upon successful completion of training.

- ◆ Australian School year 12, or an HSC
- ◆ Australian University degree

After submitting and completing the prior learning requirements, you will be advised of the course units that you will be required to do and what units you have achieved competency in. You will be invoiced for the units you have that you have satisfied, and a separate invoice will be provided for the remainder of the course.

Studying at Leverage Academy

Recognition of National Qualifications

Leverage Academy will recognise and accept Australian Quality Framework (AQF) Qualifications and / or Statements of Attainment issued by other Registered Training Organisations and recognised training providers such as Universities.

For example: If you have completed some units of competency from the Training Package CPP40307 Certificate IV in Property Services (Real Estate) and can produce a transcript of your results, you may qualify to have those qualifications or results recognised towards your training program with Leverage.

To gain recognition, you will need to provide the original documents (or certified copies) that list the Units of Competency achieved (e.g. Record of Results or Academic Transcript). The Academy will verify the validity of the documents submitted with the issuing body or training provider and retain copies on file.

Learners that have achieved competency outcomes in the VET sector since 2015 will have their results available through the USI registry system. We encourage learners to provide Leverage Academy with access to their USI transcript which will be part of their verified evidence for any applicable units of competency. A directional form for this process will be provided for Credit transfer applications.

Recognition will be granted when there is a direct equivalency between units on the verified documents and those in the course that you are enrolled in or are proposing to enrol into. If a direct equivalency between the units of competency cannot be established, you may be required to undertake assessment for that unit.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL)

Leverage Academy recognises that some participants will have acquired vocational skills from a variety of different sources, other than formal training.

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) is a form of assessment that acknowledges an individual's existing skills and knowledge that may have been acquired through:

- ◆ Previous training and education
- ◆ Relevant work experience
- ◆ Previous employment in a relevant industry sector

For example: If you have already completed some training or a qualification from an earlier version of the training package this study may be used towards your RPL and can be submitted for assessment.

If you believe that you already have the skills and knowledge (and can demonstrate your competency) in the Units of Competency in the courses and training programs, offered by the Academy you should apply at enrolment to have your skills and knowledge assessed.

Please note that RPL is not a short cut or necessarily a 'quick' way of completing a course. It involves you matching your existing knowledge and skills to the required competencies and demonstrating to your assessor that you are competent. In the event that you cannot demonstrate your competency through RPL, you are able to be assessed through other assessment methods.

To gain competency through an RPL assessment you should be able to:

- ◆ Submit evidence of subject-relevant training,
- ◆ Submit evidence of relevant work experience
- ◆ Provide evidence such as authenticated documents or samples of work demonstrating relevance and currency
- ◆ Participate in an interview to ascertain current skills and knowledge

Please note that all evidence provided will be verified for authenticity. This includes contacting referees, and all nominated third parties to confirm that the provided work experience is accurate and correct.

In order to apply for RPL please speak to the Senior Training Manager at enrolment, or your trainer / assessor at any time during your course.

Recognition of Current Competency (RCC)

Recognition of Current Competency (RCC) only applies if a learner has successfully completed the requirements previously for a unit of competency or module and is now required to be reassessed to ensure that the competence is being maintained (AVETMISS Standard Edition 2.3 November 2016). In this case no extra skill or competencies are recognised. RCC is an assessment process that may be required for licensing purposes or defined units of competency where skill requirements are regularly updated.

Flexible Course Delivery

Leverage Academy offers both face-to-face courses, and distance education for those who prefer to study at their own pace at their own time in their own space.

Face to face courses via ZOOM are held at our training venue at our Head Office in Castle Hill. Face-to-face delivery allows participants to benefit from the wealth of knowledge offered by other participants and allows plenty of opportunity to participate in class discussion and ask questions to gain knowledge of real experiences which may not be available through distance education methods.

For specific groups of participants training can be arranged to be conducted at the participants or their employers' premises.

No matter how you decide to complete a course Leverage Academy trainers and assessors are available to provide assistance and support. Leverage trainers and assessors are real estate professionals whose guiding principle is to provide a positive learning experience and help participants successfully complete their course or qualification.

Leverage Academy recognises that not everyone learns in the same manner, and therefore can make any reasonable adjustments to help those who may not learn best with traditional learning and assessment methods achieve the required competency standards, where that is within our ability. Where the Academy cannot assist, we can refer you to suitable organisations that can provide assistance.

Any further questions can be referred to the Training Manager.

Face to Face courses and workshops

It is expected that behaviour in class ensures a positive learning and teaching environment, where participants behave in a professional, respectful manner at all times and taking others into consideration.

When attending face-to-face training courses and workshops you are expected to:

- ◆ Be suitably dressed. Shorts, thongs and singlets are not considered suitable attire for a professional training environment;
- ◆ Arrive punctually so that sessions can commence on time, and return from breaks and lunch promptly to minimise delays;
- ◆ Turn mobile phones to silent during sessions;
- ◆ Return calls during scheduled breaks or leave the room before making or taking any call;
- ◆ Not be under the influence of alcohol or drugs;
- ◆ Smoke only in permitted areas outside the venue or building;
- ◆ Use appropriate language and refrain from using profanities or being provocative;
- ◆ Ensure the security of their own personal possessions;
- ◆ Promptly report any case of injury, discrimination or harassment to their trainer/assessor;
- ◆ Respect the property of other participants, trainers / assessors and the venue;
- ◆ Actively participate in group activities and role plays;
- ◆ Act with integrity in all training and assessment procedures;
- ◆ Comply with any Work Health and Safety requirements of the training venue, or directions given by Leverage Academy;
- ◆ Recognise that they have a duty of care under Work Health and Safety legislation towards other participants, trainers, assessors and staff at the training venue.

Leverage Academy retains the right to remove disruptive participants from the classroom environment. Participants who are found to be acting inappropriately will be managed through a disciplinary process.

Due to COVID-19, our face-to-face sessions will be conducted via Zoom, which is a cloud-based video conferencing service. For all pertinent information as attendees, refer to 'Appendix 7: Zoom Meetings'.

Attendance

Rebooking of Courses

A student may elect to transfer their booking to another course date. If a student wishes to transfer, they must book into the same course within 6mths of their initial booking. No extra charge will be made if the request of transfer is made more than 7 days of the course commencement date, if the transfer is accepted. If the request for transfer is made less than 7 days from the commencement date a transfer fee of $150 will be payable.

A student may only transfer once without incurring a cost. If a student has transferred into a course, which they cancel a transfer fee of $150 applies. A failure to attend the course a consequential booking, will carry a transfer fee of $250.

Disciplinary procedures

Disciplinary procedures may be implemented when the behaviour of a participant is considered to be unsatisfactory and falls below the standards and guidelines in this handbook, or the participant fails to follow the reasonable instructions given by a trainer or assessor. The disciplinary process has three steps:

1. Counselling from the course trainer or assessor, identifying the problem behaviour is, how the behaviour does not meet the guidelines; and the expected standard of behaviour.
2. If the unsatisfactory behaviour continues then the participant will be counselled by a senior Leverage Academy staff member or supervisor.
3. If the unsatisfactory behaviour continues then the participant will be considered for removal from the programme, which may involve suspension or expulsion from training room, or expulsion from Leverage Academy and the training course being undertaken

Assessments

Assessments are based upon the demonstration of competency. This means that you must demonstrate that you have met the performance criteria, the critical aspects required for assessment, and the required skills and knowledge for each unit of competency within the course.

The assessment tasks for each unit have been prepared against the Unit of Competency details published on the training.gov.au website. The full unit of competency descriptors include elements and performance criteria; required skills and knowledge; a range statement and critical aspects for assessment as well as other information, and are available upon request.

Each unit of competency will typically include 2 or 3 different methods of assessment that ensure that participants can show their competency in all aspects of that unit. The different methods of assessment for each Unit of Competency may include:

- | | |
|-----------------------------|---|
| ◆ Workbook activities | ◆ Assignments |
| ◆ Multiple Choice questions | ◆ Projects |
| ◆ Written answer questions | ◆ Workplace observations and demonstrations |
| ◆ Case studies | ◆ Role Plays |

Recognition of Prior Learning (RPL) assessments will normally include:

- | | |
|---------------------------------------|-------------------------------------|
| ◆ Documentary evidence submissions | ◆ Third party or supervisor reports |
| ◆ Interview and / or verbal questions | ◆ Role Plays |

All assessment tasks for each unit must be submitted before an assessor can make a final assessment decision. Assessors are available to explain or clarify the requirements or to provide guidance if required.

You will be required to sign a declaration on each assessment cover sheet to confirm that you have completed the work yourself. In addition, each page must include your handwritten name and signature as a method of verification and validation.

Assessments may be submitted in hard copy, or by email (either in word (.doc, .docx) or as a PDF). It is recommended that you make and retain a copy of all assessment that you submit in case of loss. Leverage Academy will not be able to assess a unit unless it is complete.

You must hand in your own work. Work that has been completed in a group environment is acceptable, but each participant must submit assessments in their own words and acknowledge the contribution of other members of the group. Copied or duplicated assessments will not be accepted.

Leverage applies the principles of access and equity in assessment by ensuring that everyone is given an equal opportunity to undertake the assessment and achieve competency. This means that all participants are treated equitably and free from discrimination and bias. Where it is appropriate, reasonable adjustment to assessments can be made for those that may have disabilities, impairments or specific needs. Adjustments may include additional time to submit assessments or complete courses, use of special equipment or verbal assessments.

Assessment Grading

Individual assessment tasks that collectively comprise a Unit of Competency are marked as either “Satisfactory” or “Not yet Satisfactory”. Once all Assessment tasks for a Unit of Competency have been assessed, the Unit is graded as either “Competent” or “Not yet Competent”. There is no further grading of assessments.

You will be given feedback on your outcomes from these assessments either by email or by phone. If you have been assessed as “Not yet Satisfactory” or “Not yet Competent” your assessor will clarify the reasons why and provide sufficient guidance to help achieve competency in that unit. In some cases, a verbal assessment may be sufficient to help the assessor reach a decision.

Leverage provides continuous support to our learners. A student may be marked as “Not yet Satisfactory” and may need to re-sit a module. Leverage offers our Certificate IV and above level learners the right to re-sit a module once at no extra cost. An alternative method of assessment may be undertaken in order to demonstrate competency. If the learner requires a third round of class room learning, fees may apply.

After three unsuccessful attempts, a learner will be deemed as “Not competent” (Competency not achieved) for the unit in question.

Assessment Appeals

An appeals and reassessment process is part of the assessment process in nationally recognised training courses that lead to a Qualification or Statement of Attainment.

For learner’s who wish to appeal against a final decision of an assessment:

- ◆ To not award a qualification on the grounds that:
 - The learner had been unsuccessful in all attempts to complete assessments to the required standard within the respective timeframe
 - The learner had not completed or submitted all necessary assessment requirements for awarding purposes and the trainer/assessor and/or administrative staff have not been able to contact the learner concerned after repeated attempts to finalise the matter

Before formally appealing an assessment result you should discuss the situation with your assessor. If the matter cannot be resolved immediately, or you do not want to appeal directly to your assessor, then the appeal will be dealt with in accordance with the Academy’s Complaints, Grievances and Appeals Policy. Before making an assessment outcome appeal, you should ensure you have reasonable grounds for making the appeal, for example:

- ◆ Unclear or inaccurate instructions by the assessor
- ◆ You feel the assessor showed bias or treated you unfairly or inequitably
- ◆ You were ill during the period of assessment and this can be substantiated

Learners can lodge their formal assessment appeal by completing and submitting the Assessment Appeals Form – Appendix 1: Assessment Appeal Form and including all supporting evidence that relates to the assessment appeal. To be lodged to leverage Academy within 30 calendar days of the assessment result

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the practice of taking someone else's work and presenting it as your own, either in whole or part. Copying work from a previous assessment or another person is considered to be a serious offence and is not tolerated by Leverage Academy.

Where plagiarism is detected the work will be assessed as “Not yet Satisfactory” or “Not yet Competent”, the participant will be counselled and, in the first instance, required to complete an alternative assessment.

Repeated or continued plagiarism will warrant disciplinary action, which may include expulsion from the course. You will not be entitled to any refunds in the event of expulsion due to plagiarism.

Certificates, Qualifications and Statements

Upon successful completion of your course you will be issued with a credential or other document that confirms that you have completed your course by achieving the specified competencies. The RTO Standards requires issuance within 30 calendar days, while with Leverage Academy, this usually occurs within 10 business days.

If you have successfully completed a Nationally Recognised Qualification that is within the Australian Qualifications Framework you will receive a Certificate which records the qualification name and the national code of the qualification achieved. The qualification certificate is accompanied by a Transcript or Record of Results which lists the Units of Competency you have completed to achieve the Qualification.

Please note that the Real Estate Licensing qualification requirements vary from state to state and different states require different combinations of units to achieve a qualification that can be used to support an application for a real estate licence.

If you have not completed a full nationally recognised qualification you will receive a Statement of Attainment which lists the Units of Competency that you have successfully completed. Real estate registration courses, for example, require the completion of several specific units of competency that form part of a nationally recognised qualification.

If you complete a short course that is not part of the Australian Qualifications Framework which does not include units of competency or have national recognition (such as a Continuing Professional Development course or a separate skills-based course), you will be issued with either a non-accredited 'Statement of Attendance', or a non-accredited 'Statement of Attendance and Assessment'.

Leverage Academy reserves the right to withhold issuing credentials, Certificates and Statements of Attainment should there be any outstanding course fees.

Complaints, Grievances and Appeals

Any participant or client has the right to lodge a complaint or appeal against any decision that they believe is unfair or unjustified, or an act of discrimination, harassment, vilification or bullying.

The first point of contact should be informally with the staff member concerned, or to the Senior Training Manager. If the matter cannot be resolved immediately, they will request that the complaint, grievance or appeal is put in writing using the forms found under Appendices.

Complaints cannot be anonymous because this is considered unfair as ongoing discussion cannot take place to resolve the issue between all parties. To meet the principles of natural justice and procedural fairness, all parties involved will be given the opportunity to present their case or viewpoint on the circumstances leading to the complaint and propose a resolution. This may be face to face, by phone or video link (e.g. Face-time, skype).

Written complaints will be considered by Leverage Academy's CEO, who will either determine the matter, or refer the matter to a suitable person for consultation. The outcome, together with the reason for the decision, will be forwarded to the complainant in writing.

The Academy aims to resolve matters within 10 business days. If the complaint is referred to a consultant, every effort will be to ensure that the matter is resolved as quickly as possible. Where more than 60 days are required to process, and finalise the complaint, Leverage Academy will inform the complainant in writing why more than 60 days are required and will provide regular progress updates.

Complaints that have been found to be true and requiring system changes, are then recorded onto our Continuous Improvement System for processing and actioning as speedily as possible.

Privacy requirements and Learner/complainant rights are maintained. Leverage Academy will securely maintain records of all complaints and appeals and their outcomes.

Should the matter not be resolved to the satisfaction of the complainant after the complaints procedure has been exhausted, then the individual can make an appeal in writing using the 'Appeal Form' – Appendix 3: Appeal Form be recorded on Leverage Academy's Complaint and Appeal Register. The appeal will be acknowledged in writing to all relevant parties. If the appeal is not received within 7 working days of the complainant receiving the decision regarding the outcome of the complaint, the matter will be considered closed.

The complainant will be advised that an Independent adjudicator, mediator or consultant will be sought to consider the nature of the complaint and a possible further resolution.

The complainant will be advised that they will share up to 50% of adjudicator costs to be paid in full before the appointment and that the actual total cost will be borne by the losing party.

The selection of the adjudicator will be communicated with the complainant and the selection must be with the mutual agreement of the complainant.

Leverage Academy management will make contact with the Independent adjudicator and provide all documentation related to the formal complaint/appeal and complainant contact details.

Responses from the adjudicator must be within 10 business days from the date that all formal complaint documentation is provided to the adjudicator, or such longer time as advised in writing by the adjudicator.

On receipt of the formal complaint documentation the adjudicator will make contact with Leverage Academy Management and staff and the complainant and arrange a suitable time for further discussion pertaining to the formal complaint.

Where more than 60 days are required to process and finalise the appeal, Leverage Academy will inform the complainant in writing why more than 60 days are required and will provide regular progress updates

All Independent Adjudicator Appeal proposed solutions will be final and be reported to Leverage Academy and the complainant in writing and will require immediate implementation by both parties.

Complainants retain the ultimate right of complaint is to the National Regulator for the Vocational Education industry, ASQA. Their complaints process is available on their website: <http://www.asqa.gov.au/>

Appendix 7: Zoom Meetings

Please note: You do not need a Zoom account to participate in Zoom meetings hosted by Leverage Academy.

If this is your first Zoom meeting on your device, click download and run Zoom. The Zoom.exe file will download, and you will need to open the file.

Please note: This only needs to be done once for any device on which you use Zoom for the first time.

- Do this well in advance of your scheduled meeting.

If you are inexperienced or unsure on how to use Zoom, please watch either or both videos on how to use Zoom. To access, scan the selected QR code

Zoom for Dummies

Zoom Tutorial for Beginners: How to Use Zoom Video Conferencing

Leverage Academy will provide with the meeting details:

- Date and time
- Meeting ID number or meeting link
- Meeting password

Student Identification

Upon entry to the first session, have your personal photo ID ready. Upon request, hold your photo ID next to your face so that it is visible to your trainer, who can then verify you as the student.

At all times, keep the video feature on. This ensures that the trainer has full confidence that all students are in attendance and attentive.

Choose video layout

At the upper right of the Zoom window, you can switch between active speaker view (shows the speaker) and gallery view (Shows all attendees – depends on screen size and settings – can go to more than one page of images). You can also switch between a shared screen and the video by clicking on a button available in this location during a screen share.

General Guidelines

If you click on Participants (bottom tool bar), you can see who is currently in the meeting. The participants list also gives you the option to raise your hand or rename yourself.

- Raise Hand - notifies host (Leverage Trainer) and shows a prompt to simulate hand raise
- Rename - hover over your name to change it as it is seen in the participants list & video window
 - Ensure that enter your correct name as per Student enrolment

To comment, raise your hand icon. Once selected, you can Unmute your microphone by clicking the microphone icon at the bottom left of control bar and make your comment. All participants will be able to hear you. Once finished, lower your hand icon and Mute yourself.

- The host also has the ability to Mute you.

Be respectful and do not be disruptive by Unmuting yourself to make a comment without being requested to do so.

Refrain from participating in other activities while in attendance at the meetings. For example, using mobile phone for communication, social media, gaming, surfing the net, etc. will only distract you from being attentive to the information being presented.

Leverage Academy is committed to providing a training environment free from discrimination, bullying, victimisation and/or harassment of any kind. All aspects as covered by this Handbook apply as well for Zoom meetings.

Leave meeting

Click 'Leave meeting' to leave the webinar at any time. If you leave, you can rejoin if the webinar is still in progress, as long as the host has not locked the webinar. Always best to confirm with the host beforehand.

Video Meeting Etiquette: 5 Tips to Ensure a Great Attendee Experience

There's just no substitute for good manners in all of our daily interactions, and they're certainly appreciated more than ever in workplace meetings. There are some age-old guidelines that comprise good meeting etiquette — being on time, maintaining eye contact, paying attention — and applying those same principles to our video meetings can go a long way toward a productive business environment. It can also help elevate your personal reputation into "great meeting host" territory.

Traditional business meetings are too often considered unproductive because there are so many delays and interruptions. Reliable, easy-to-use video conferencing platforms like Zoom have helped to restore meetings' reputations, but there are still ways to ensure all of your attendees get the most out of the allotted time.

Some of the most common-sense meeting decorum — avoiding eating and drinking, minding your body language, and being respectful to whoever is speaking — are no-brainers. So here are seven additional etiquette tips to help ensure a focused and effective Zoom Meeting.

1. Make sure to introduce everyone at the beginning.

Just like a real meeting or social event, you wouldn't initiate a conversation between two acquaintances who haven't met without introducing them. The same practice applies to a virtual meeting. Be sure to introduce all parties you are hosting at the beginning to create a welcoming environment and stimulate engagement.

2. Ensure that you have a clean, work-appropriate background.

You want your attendees' focus to be on the meeting content, not your messy office or your amazing art collection. By having a clean setting with work-appropriate art and decorations, you reduce the chance that attendees will get distracted. You should also try to attend the meeting from a quiet area that has minimal background noise and movement. Zoom's virtual background feature is an easy way to eliminate background distractions when you have to meet in a messy or busy location.

3. Look into the camera when talking instead of looking at yourself.

If you're looking at yourself on the screen while you're talking, it will seem like your attention is elsewhere. Direct eye contact into the camera while speaking gives attendees the impression that you are looking at them rather than off to the side, which creates an environment where everyone feels engaged and present in the conversation. Be sure to position your web camera and monitor at eye level so you can look into the camera and simulate that eye-to-eye connection with other attendees.

4. Eliminate distractions and focus on the agenda.

Notifications from messaging applications, ringtones, and applications running on your desktop can be distracting, which can make your attendees feel disrespected and undervalued. Mitigating these distractions helps keep the meeting focused and free from interruption.

5. Be aware of your audio and video settings.

Check whether your microphone is unmuted and that your camera is on to ensure that all attendees can hear you and see you when you speak. If you notice that someone in the meeting is speaking but their microphone is muted, you can alert them that they are muted by requesting that they unmute their audio in the Manage Participants tab. You also can manage how you start and join meetings — with video on, entering a meeting muted, etc. — in your Zoom Meeting Settings.
